

Free ACT Parent Workshop

Are you starting the college-going process with your student?

Do you have questions about the ACT?

Would you like tips on how to help your student prepare for the test?

We have a FREE workshop just for you!

Pickaway HELPS is sponsoring a parent workshop on the ACT and the importance of preparing for the journey into higher education. There will be materials from ACT and information from Lucinda Eubanks, ACT Educator and Ohio University-Chillicothe adjunct faculty member. You will leave this workshop able to empower your student as they face the ACT testing environment and start making decisions about their future. Please join us:

WHEN: Wednesday, March 10th, 6:00 pm

WHERE: Pickaway County Educational Service Center
2050 Stoneridge Drive, Circleville
