

Free ACT Parent Workshop

Are you starting on the journey to college with your child?

Do you have questions and concerns about the ACT and how the scores are used?

Would you like some tips and information on how to help your child prepare for the test?

We have planned a FREE workshop just for you!

Pickaway HELPS – Higher Education Learning Partners for Students - is sponsoring a free parent workshop on the ACT and the importance of preparing for the journey into higher education. There will be free materials from ACT and preparation tips and information from Lucinda Eubanks, ACT Educator, retired teacher and Ohio University-Chillicothe adjunct faculty member. It is our hope this workshop will give you information to help you empower your children with confidence as they face the ACT testing environment and start making decisions about their future. Please join us:

WHEN: Wednesday, October 1st, 6:00 pm

WHERE: Pickaway County Educational Service Center
2050 Stoneridge Drive, Circleville

* To reserve seating, or for more information call Christy Mills, 474-5383 or e-mail: highered@pickawayboc.org

Sponsored by Pickaway HELPS in collaboration with the Pickaway County Educational Service Center